

Activity Sheet 13 – Standard Processes

To what degree do you have understood, standard processes within your team or does everyone do it differently?

If you had a new starter would they be able to find a document that tells them the best way of doing something?

To what degree does your training relate to standard operating procedures?