

Activity Sheet 9 People Watching

Choose a suitable opportunity where you can operate as an observer.

Warning! Discretion is advised – not everyone might appreciate you closely examining their language or making notes on what they are saying.

How do people frame and describe everyday events?

What metaphors or similes do they use?

How they make sense of what they hear with reference to other things - what they see this as an example of.